The Road To Recovery — The 8 Principles

Principle 1 -

Realize I'm not God; I admit that I am powerless to control my tendency to do the wrong thing and my life is unmanageable.

"Happy are those who know they are spiritually poor"

Principle 2 -

Earnestly believe that God exists, that I matter to him, and that he has the power to help me recover.

"Happy are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted"

Principle 3 -

Consciously choose to commit all my life and will to Christ's care and control.

"Happy are the meek"

Principle 4 -

Openly examine and confess my faults to God, to myself, and to someone I trust.

"Happy are the pure in heart"

Celebrate Recovery is a dynamic, Christ-centered, 12-step program. CR meetings are held at Gogginsville United Methodist Church, Friday evenings at 6 pm, with a large group session from 6 to 7 pm, followed by small group meetings from 7 to 8 pm.

CR is a nationally-recognized program for those looking for help with problems such as substance abuse, past hurts, co-dependency, anger and sexual purity. CR meetings are designed to be a safe place to meet in a group setting, focusing on God's solutions to the hurts, habits and hang-ups that are common to all.

Principle 5 -

Voluntarily submit to every change God wants to make in my life and humbly ask Him to remove my character defects.

"Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires"

Principle 6 -

Evaluate all my relationships; offer forgiveness to those who have hurt me and make amends for harm I've done to others except when to do so would harm them or others.

"Happy are the merciful"

"Happy are the peacemakers"

Principle 7 -

Reserve a daily time with God for self examination, Bible readings and prayer in order to know God and His will for my life and to gain the power to follow His will.

Principle 8 -

Yield myself to God to be used to bring this Good News to others, both by my example and by my words.

"Happy are those who are persecuted because they do what God requires"
